Permission to Use and Share Recipe and Pictures

By signing this form, you are granting Rahab's Daughters permission to use the recipe you share with us as part of the Recipe E-Cookbook we are compiling to send to our survivors and share with the Rahab's Daughters community. The cookbook will be available on our website for those interested in viewing it. You understand that having your recipe included in the cookbook is 1) not guaranteed, and 2) does not mean you have won the contest. The winner will be chosen randomly and contacted directly by us. You also understand that no compensation or reward will be granted in any form for the use of your recipe in the cookbook, unless you are chosen as the random winner and receive the gift card. In addition, you are granting us permission to use any pictures you include in your submission.

Do you want your name included with the recipe when it is passed along?

By signing below, you are stating that you understand and agree to the above, and grant us permission to freely use your recipe and images in the cookbook. You understand that you will not receive any monetary rewards or compensation for this action, and that this does not mean you have been chosen as the winner. You are also stating that this recipe is your own, or you have permission to use it and for it to be shared.
